It is not always the ambulance team that has the most trophies to show that is the best, but those teams which have a high standard of practical work at the colliery. Dr. A. H. Campbell (N.C.B. area Surgeon) told members of New Lount Colliery St John Ambulance Brigade Division during the annual dinner and presentation of awards at the Rescue Station, Ashby, on Saturday.

Dr. Campbell, a former Divisional Surgeon at New Lount, said the competition team had not aspired to great heights, but competition work was not always the best method of judging efficiency.

Area Superintendent, Mr. S. A. McKee, who paid tribute to the ambulance division for their efficiency at the colliery. "In years to come it will be far more pronounced than it is now," he said.

Mr. F. Gregory, the Divisional President, welcomed guests on behalf of the St John's Division. Guests included Dr. and Mrs. Campbell and Brigade members, their wives and friends.
