ST JOHN'S MORTUARY CHAPEL

In the course of several centuries, the population of Coleorton gradually moved away from the neighbourhood of St. Mary's Church. The most densely part of the parish of Coleorton "The Upper Moor", was nearly two miles from St. Mary's which also involved a considerable climb via Church Hill. Because St. Mary's Graveyard was quickly approaching its limits in terms of accommodating further burials, it was decided that a small mortuary chapel should be built next to the school.

On June 24th 1856, the commissioners authorised Coleorton Parish to procure a new burial ground and to make a rate for the amount of purchase money. At a vestry meeting on May 9th 1856, it was announced that Sir George Beaumont was willing to sell for the sum of £17 7s., a piece of close of land called Coal Pit Close containing 13 acres 1 rood and 31 perches which was given as equivalent to 1,200 square yards. It was agreed that the said purchase money be defrayed by a church rate or church rates to be levied in the parish. Also, the estimated cost of enclosure of the new ground was estimated at £120 7s., plus a sum of £45 estimated for consecration fees and land expenses. This also to be defrayed by a further increase in church rates.

It was agreed that the church wardens be empowered to apply to Her Majesties Commissioners for building new churches, for their assistance in carrying the above mentioned objects into affect. It was further resolved that the sum of £600 be borrowed for the new burial ground and the expenses incidental thereunto, on the security of the bond to be executed by the following censure, and occupiers, and such others as may be disposed to join in it as follows – Benjamin Walker, Robert Bonnet, William Wardle, Joseph Right Faux, John Ayre, William Walker and Peter Heward. A highway rate of 5d in the pound was granted to the surveyors. Also a church rate of 3d in the pound for the current expenses of the year.

Meeting convened on July 24th 1856 - Present at that meeting were the Rev, F, Merewether (in the chair), Mr. Richard Wardle (overseer), John Ayre (surveyor), Peter Heward, Benjamin Walker (guardian) and William Walker (churchwarden). It was decided to put out for tender in the Leicester Journal, Leicester Advertiser, Nottingham Review, and Derby Mercury for the building of a chapel and cemetery wall. At the same meeting it was decided that a 10d church rate be applied for the expenses expressed in the aforementioned resolutions. Please note the following advertisement in the Leicester Journal.

Meeting convened on August 15th 1856 - In addition to the previous meeting, Mr. J. Hatchett and Mr. E Fisher (solicitor), and Mr R. Bonnet (surveyor) attended. It was agreed that Mr. John Elliot's tender for the cemetery wall, Bell and Row work for doors amounting to £282-5s.- 0d should be accepted. Also Mr. Rowland Walker's tender for the woodwork amounting to £28-10s.-0d., be also accepted. Also that the sum of £300 be borrowed upon a bond of the principal rate payers, to be repaid by annual installments of £50 per autumn per annum, and that Mr. Edward Fisher (Solicitor), be requested to procure the same upon the above terms

Supplementary information – The following was recorded by the Rev. F. Merewether, Rector of the Parish of Coleorton:-

The corner stone of the chapel was laid with attendant ceremonies by Sir George Beaumont, Bart, owner of the Parish and patron of the church on Tuesday October 21st 1856 in the twentieth year of our gracious Queen Victoria. The inscription "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord" was deposited with two silver florins dated 1856 in a glass bottle under the corner stone.

CONSECRATION OF NEW CEMETERY AT COLEORTON

On Thursday last, the 27th (Aug) ult., this cemetery was consecrated by the Lord Bishop of the Diocese. At three o'clock the churchwarden and others met the bishop and clergy at the Parish Church, where the evening service was read by the Rev. F. Merewether, the rector, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Alderson, and others. After the petition for consecration being presented to the bishop, and a suitable hymn had been sung, the clergy and parishioners proceeded to the cemetery, which lies on the south side, adjoining to the turnpike-road leading from Ashby de la Zouch to Loughborough, and within a field adjoining the rectory (bear in mind that Coleorton Viscount Beaumont's Church of England School had not been built at that time), where they met the bishop and immediately proceeded round the ground, the appointed Psalms being recited. At the chapel, the consecration service was read by the bishop in a most impressive manner. The sentence of consecration was then read by the chancellor, and by him ordered to be enrolled and preserved among the manuscripts of the registry. The communion service and epistles were then read, after which the 90th Psalm was sung by the Coleorton Church Choir, and the bishop pronounced the Benediction, which ended the ceremony. The chapel is of the "Decorated" period, and is very neatly and substantially built; all the windows and dressings are of freestone, as are also the faces of the internal walls, and the other parts are of granite. The ground is enclosed with a very strong stone wall. The ground, stone, and timber were the gift of Sir G. H. Beaumont, Bart. The builders, to whom much credit is due, are Mr. Elliot, of Ashby, and Mr. Walker, formerly of Coleorton; the former doing the masonry, and the latter the woodwork. The drawings were furnished by Sir G. H. Beaumont and Mr. Heward. The day was all that could be wished, and the arrangements were admirably managed by the churchwardens, Messrs. W. Walker and J. Beckworth. Among the company present were, the Revs. F. Merewether, O. Davys, - Alderson, M. Vavasour, J. Denton, H. Wood, - Gardner; Sir G. H. and Lady Beaumont, Joseph Benson, Esq., Miss Merewether, Mrs. Merewether, the Misses Way, Mrs. Wood (Whitwick), Mr. Ayre, Mr. Faux, Mrs. and Mr. Bonnet, Mrs. and Mr. Heward, Mr. Elliot, Mr. Davenport, &c.

So, the new chapel to St. John the Apostle and Evangelist was considerably nearer to the bulk of the people. This building seating 24, which, apart from funerals, was used for services on many occasions - principally for celebrations of the Holy Communion on Sundays and some weekday mornings.

The majority of the congregation was made up from the Beaumont estate workers and the Hall's domestic staff, who had been used to attending services at St. Mary's Church. Apparently there were difficulties within the congregation, and it appears that the Chapel was not well supported.

There is nothing very remarkable about this chapel, apart from its lovely alter of carved Spanish oak. It has three stained glass windows, two of which commemorate Canon W. B. Beaumont, who was Rector of Coleorton from 1864-1901, whilst the alter rails are in memory of his second wife, Elizabeth Mary, who did so much to beautify the Parish Church.

More recently in the 1960's, after a period of some neglect, it was renovated and re-consecrated by the Bishop of Leicester.

In 2013 the following audit of St. John's cemetery was carried out by the author and John MacDonald the Coleorton Heritage Warden. This requires continual updating of course, but this has not been done.

Cremation remembrance plaques were included.

The earliest grave (No. 99) we could find / decipher was that of Walter Lovatt Walker who was born in 1872 and died at 2 years of age on Mar 25th 1874. He was the son of Josiah & Jane Walker
