INTRODUCTION

Before 1918 no women were allowed to vote in parliamentary elections. In the early 20th century there were two main groups active in the campaign for women's suffrage, a term used to describe the right to vote.

These two groups were the 'suffragists' who campaigned using peaceful methods such as lobbying, and the 'suffragettes' who were determined to win the right to vote for women by any means. Their militant campaigning sometimes included unlawful and violent acts which attracted much publicity.

Women get the vote

During 1916-1917, the House of Commons Speaker, James William Lowther, chaired a conference on electoral reform which recommended limited women's suffrage.

Influential consideration

Only 58% of the adult male population was eligible to vote before 1918. An influential consideration, in addition to the suffrage movement and the growth of the Labour Party, was the fact that only men who had been resident in the country for 12 months prior to a general election were entitled to vote.

This effectively disenfranchised a large number of troops who had been serving overseas in the war. With a general election imminent, politicians were persuaded to extend the vote to all men and some women at long last.

Representation of the People Act 1918

In 1918 the Representation of the People Act was passed which allowed women over the age of 30 who met a property qualification to vote. Although 8.5 million women met this criteria, it was only about two-thirds of the total population of women in the UK.

The same Act abolished property and other restrictions for men, and extended the vote to virtually all men over the age of 21. Additionally, men in the armed forces could vote from the age of 19. The electorate increased from eight to 21 million, but there was still huge inequality between women and men.

Equal Franchise Act 1928

It was not until the Equal Franchise Act of 1928 that women over 21 were able to vote and women finally achieved the same voting rights as men. This act increased the number of women eligible to vote to 15 million.

NOTES RELATED TO THE FOLLOWING REGISTRATION CHARTS

The register contains the names in alphabetical order of all persons entitled to vote as parliamentary and as local government electors.

The index letters in column 2 (Parliamentary) and 3 (Local Govt.) of the following register show the nature of the qualification of an elector as follows:-

R. - Residence qualification

B.P. - Business premises qualification

O. - Occupation qualification

H.O. - Qualification through husband's occupation

N.M. - Naval or military voter

The entry of the appropriate Index letter against a name in the column headed "Parliamentary" indicates that the elector is a Parliamentary elector, and the entry of the appropriate letter or letters against a name in the column headed "Local Govt." indicates that the elector is a local Government elector. Where no index letter is entered in one or the other of these columns against a name, the elector is not entitled to the franchise to which the column relates.

AS THE REGISTRATION OFFICER DID NOT IDENTIFY THE ADDRESS OF PEOPLE FROM WORTHINGTON ON THE REGISTRATION FORMS FOR SOME REASON, THE AUTHOR HAS HIGHLIGHTED THESE IN BLUE FOR ANYONE LIVING IN THE VILLAGE OR CLOSE VICINITY USING HIS LOCAL KNOWLEDGE, BUT SOME COULD BE OPEN TO CONJECTURE.
